

Annual Literary Day held on 17th November 2021 in commemoration of National Education Day 2021

The Literati Club DGC, organised a Short Story Writing and Extempore Speech Competition for the students of DGC on the 17th of November 2021 in commemoration of National Education Day 2021 at DGC's Arts Block, Room 1 and Room 2.

Dr. Maongkala Longchar, Assistant Professor, Dept. of English anchored the competition.

The panel of Judges for the competitions were:

a) Extempore Speech:

- i) I. Suzzana Yaden, Assistant Professor, Dept. of English
- ii) Sedevino Jakhalu, Associate Professor, Dept. of Political Science
- iii) Imtikokla Ozukum, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Economics
- iv) Herali Achumi, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Sociology

b) Short Story Writing:

- i) Shuiching Konyak, Assistant Professor, Dept. Of English
- ii) Watisenla, Assistant Professor, Dept. of English
- iii) Dr. Maongkala Longchar, Assistant Professor, Dept of English
- iv) Alemtula, Associate Professor, Dept. of English.

Mithu Longkumer, Associate Professor & HoD, English, in her keynote speech addressed the significance of the National Education Day and thanked the participants and the judges.

There were 16 student-participants in total with 5 of the students participating in both the competitions.

The winners were:

a) Extempore Speech:

- 1st - Imlikumla Kichu, B.A 3rd Semester
- 2nd - Lipoksangla, B.Com 5th Semester
- 3rd (Tie) - Lhalhai Singson and Vitoka Chishi, B.A 3rd Semester

b) Short Story Writing:

- 1st - Imlikumla Kichu, B.A 3rd Semester.

2nd – Vitoka Chishi, B.A 3rd Semester
3rd - Malmaya Gurung, B.Com 1st Semester

The winners were presented with certificates by Watisenla , Assistant Professor, Dept. Of English, during the closing ceremony of the Sports Day, on 18th of November,2021.

Reported by:

Binoth
14-11-2021

Binoth Sangtam
Literary Secretary
DGCSC