1.3 - Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 - Institution integrates crosscutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability into the Curriculum

In tune with the curriculum, the institution integrates cross-cutting issues as part of curriculum enrichment.

Professional Ethics

Inculcating professional ethics requires certain skills and SEC courses like phonetics, Basic and Advanced English communication skills adds to the professional ethics.

Gender

DGC is a gender sensitive campus that strives for inclusivity, where gender inequality and discrimination are not tolerated. Students with disabilities are given due attention. The World Mental Health Day and International Women's day are also observed. Gender related Group discussion like on LGBTQ also creates greater awareness on gender. Events like 'Hamari Vaani' for Differently-abled students and debate events like Uniform Civil Code touching on Personal Laws and Religion serves as value addition experience to such topic related course.

Human Values

International days of importance like Yoga Day, Heritage Day, Non-Violence, Food day, NSS day are observed under curricular related themes. Activities like mini parliament add to the course value. Visiting Old Age, and Prodigals home teaches love and joy. Awareness programs on HIV/AIDS, and blood donations make the student learn about the nobility of saving lives.

Environment and Sustainability

International Days like World Environment Day, World Water day, World Clean-Up Day are observed, and DGC being a Green Campus Zone, observing such days with relevant activities instills positive impact on the students towards understanding the importance of Saving Energy, Water, Waste management and Reducing Single-Use Plastic.

2.5 - Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 - Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and mode. Write description within 200 words.

The college has a robust examination and CIE policy in place for matters of assessment, both for internal and NU examinations.

FYUGP was introduced for first and third semester (2023) students while the old course is running for final year students. Core Courses carry 25 marks, old courses 30 and AECC, EVS, SEC, IDP, VAC papers carry 12.5 marks each.

The process of internal assessment in DGC is fully transparent. The academic calendar carries the dates for internal assessment and dates for submission of marks.

Lesson plans indicate the internal assessment dates and topics for assessment are given in advance.

The Vice-Principal, aided by the Students Assessment Committee, prepares the routine for internal assessment. Special provisions are in place for PwDs.

There is scope for retests for improvement and absence for genuine reasons.

Written assignments are returned to students with feedback for improvement.

A uniform system is followed for allotment of marks to students. All Departments follow the general marking pattern of the internal examination system which ensures parity of marks.

Before the submission of internal marks to the Vice-Principal's office, departments hold meetings for moderation of marks, ensuring fairness and uniformity.

2.5.2 - Mechanism to deal with internal examination related grievances is transparent, time- bound and efficient

The College tries to ensure that all internal examinations are conducted smoothly, based on a routine and with parity of marking in line with the semester marking pattern. The Vice-Principal's office, together with the Students Assessment Committee (SAC) acts swiftly to address and rectify any errors or grievances pertaining to internal assessment. The college has a Grievance Redressal Cell which handles grievancesfound in the grievance/suggestion box in the college, and assists the academic cell headed by the Vice-Principal in reviewing grievances.

If a student has any grievance in relation to the internal examination, he/she may write to the Vice-Principal for redress. All genuine complaints are welcome and are resolved effectively in a time-bound manner.

Applications for retests and improvement tests and any correction in test/attendance records are handledand rectified by the VP's office. Assessment dates are notified ahead of time with departments given autonomy for retests. Students in the first semester have the option of changing their electives such as SEC/AEC/IDP/VAC if done before university registration.

The Vice-Principal's office, SAC and the Heads of Department work together to bring out a system which promotes the academic interests of the students.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Teachers and students are aware of the stated Programme and course outcomes of the Programmes offered by the institution.

-Every course/programme taught in DGC works in line with specific objectives and outcomes. Both the old course and FYUP are running simultaneously following university guidelines.

-The specific outcomes of programmes/courses have been included in the syllabi available on the Nagaland University website and also the college website.

-However, the College has its own mechanisms in place to meet the demands of higher education in the contemporary scenario.

- Special orientation for is given at the start of the semester for new students, followed by Library orientation.

-At the start of every new course, an introduction is given by teachers, explaining course and programme objectives and outcomes to the learners. The teaching plans give an indication of what to expect, in a streamlined manner.

-After completion of syllabus, review of the previous years' question papers takes place.

-Teaching methods havebeen updated with use of ICT; blended mode is included with AEC assessments.

- Students' feedback through the SSS has been collected and action has been taken based on findings.

- Skill Hub programmes are ongoing to promote life skills according to course requirements.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

The college offers four and three-year undergraduate programmes in Arts and Commerce.

For FYUGP Core Courses, internal evaluation is for 25 marks and NU exams for 75 marks; for AECC/EVS/SEC/IDP/VAC (2/3 credit papers), it is 12.5 and 37.5 respectively for internal and Nagaland University exams respectively.

The assessment for the old course includes 30 marks for the internal evaluation and 70 marks for the NU end-semester examinations.

Department-wise moderation takes place on the completion of evaluation in internal tests and university examinations. All marks are submitted to the Nagaland University for declaration of results.

For the old course, NU follows a seven-point grading system, FYUGP grading is on a ten point scale; SGPA and CGPA figures are published based on the concerned grading range..

After the declaration of results, an academic audit is prepared by the Students Assessment Committee for both odd and even semesters. The result summary is presented before the faculty at the end of every semester. The results contain the overall pass percentage of regular and backlog students.

Findings of the final 6th semester students' results includes a CGPA comparison of college subject toppers with university toppers. Subject topper lists are also published.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Dimapur Government College is a co-educational institution that caters to all round development of the students. It upholds and ensures gender equality in all its endeavors. The institution advocate and practice gender equality in students' decision making bodies like the Students' Council of the College by way of electing and having an equal number of students' representative from both the sexes. Internal Committee for Protection of Women (ICPW) and Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) have been constituted by the college authority to address to any kind of complaints related to women discrimination and internal complaints against gender discrimination within the institution. Gender related issues in the college are sensitively and effectively tackled by these two cells. The college provides a separate Common Room for Girls and Boys managed and looked after by the respective Girls and Boys common room committees. In order to maintain gender equity in the decision making body of the students' council in the College, an equal representation of male and female from each class are ensured in Class Representatives (CR) elections. For the safety and health hygiene of the female students in the college, the bio-degradable pad vending machine and incinerator has been installed in the college. Also, the College has hostel facilities for both boys and girls.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Waste management has been a major challenge for many urban local bodies and educational institutions in India. Dimapur Government College generates both degradable and non-degradable waste. The degradable waste generated in the campus mostly consists of leaves, weeds and paper. For management of these types of waste, there are staffs to maintain the college campus by collecting the waste into designated pits and the decomposed waste are then used as a manure for gardening.

For proper disposal and collection of solid waste like plastic, polythene etc, the college has identified a specific area. These types of waste generated within the college campus are collected by the Dimapur Municipal Council for proper disposal at their designated dumping site.

To make Dimapur city and the college campus a free plastic zone and to protect and preserve the green coverage, the College continued to put its effort to achieve this goal. The College established Green Campus Committee comprising of faculty, staff and staff to oversee and drive sustainability initiatives. The Committee conducts awareness campaign to create environmental responsibilities and also to collaborate with Government and Non-Governmental organisations.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

Dimapur Government College (DGC) is located in the commercial hub of the state. Hence, Dimapur city is heterogeneous in nature in terms of its population. Accordingly, the institution receive students from almost all the communities of the state of Nagaland and also from other states of India belonging to different religious, racial, cultural, linguistic identities. DGC provides equal opportunity to all the students irrespective of socio-cultural differences by having a systematic and transparent admission policy purely based on merit in its admission process. Besides the policy of merit in admission procedure, the College also maintains seat reservation policy for other minority communities like the Other Backward Classes, the Scheduled Caste, the General Categories and Differently-abled Persons in order to provide inclusive environment in the institution. Further, in order to promote the diverse culture of the nation and to create inclusive environment, the College organizes a College week as one of the major yearly event including show cases of diverse culture from different communities of the nation. Apart from DGC students, the students from neighbouring Colleges also took part in the event. Also, it is mandatory for every student to wear at least one item of traditional attire on every Wednesday.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best practice – 1: Skill Development:

Skill Development is one of the best practices of Dimapur Government College (DGC). In collaboration with external agencies such as NSDC, UNNATI-UNXT, and IBM, the College has successfully conducted several skill based training programmes such as soft skills, financial investment in securities markets, sewing machine operator, assistant beauty therapist, IT for school coordinators and assistant installation computing and peripheral. Altogether, 312 students have benefitted from the above skill training courses.

Best practice – 2: Water Conservation

The implementation of the water conservation scheme in the college through participatory approaches such as awareness programmes, workshops and social works has benefited the stakeholder of college community. The amount of water harvested during rainy season are collected and stored for other useful purposes such as watering flowers and sanitations which was left unattended and neglected before the implementation. The rain water harvesting has been the important source of water storage in the ponds which has the dual purposes of fishery and underground water recharging. It has improved the quality and supply of water for better accessibility and sustainability of water resource.
