58th Freshers' Meet, 2025

Dimapur Government College observed its 58th Freshers' Meet in the college auditorium on the 22nd of August, 2025

The much-anticipated annual event, which is organised by the College Students' Council (DGCSC) comprised of a formal and an informal session. The formal session was hosted by Ms. Arina Yaden, BA Economics 3rd Sem. and Mr. Kehika Yeptho, BA Political Science 5th Sem.

In greeting the gathering, Dr. T. Tiakaba Jamir, Principal, Dimapur Government College highlighted on the progress of the college, especially the introduction of the science stream and excellent results of the students who performed exceptionally well in the previous university results both in the undergraduate and postgraduate (MA in Education) levels. DGC produced the topper in MA Education in Nagaland University, Ms. Mutsoi Khiam, who was duly honored with a citation and a cash award. He also wished the freshers success in their academic journey.

The event was attended by Shri. Temjen Imna Along, Hon'ble Minister of Higher Education and Tourism, Nagaland; the faculty; staff and students of the college; invitees and representatives from other colleges, namely, St. John College, Immanuel College, MGM College, Salt Christian College, Patkai Christian College, Eastern Christian College, Pranab College, Cornerstone College, SD Jain Girls College, Sakus Mission College, Public College and Livingstone College

Speech on behalf of the freshers was delivered by Ms. I. Joilem Konyak of Philosophy department.

The Special Guest addressed the gathering urging for unity and cooperation for a strong Nagaland. He discouraged tribalism and negativity among youth. While stating that there are no shortcuts to success, he urged them to work hard and be resilient. He advised students to stay prepared, remain humble, and support one another. He also stated that equal importance will be given to Science, Humanities, and Commerce streams and announced that DGC will be developed as a Skill Hub. He assured of transparency in student scholarships. After listening to musical numbers from the students, he proposed an inter-college music competition early next year in the college to promote musical talent in the student community. He also assured that ACs will be installed in classrooms in the coming years.

A prayer of blessings for Freshers was pronounced by Miss Veineiching Hangsing, Prayer Secretary, Evangelical Union, DGC
