Report on Monthly Research Seminar

The Department of Hindi, Dimapur Government College, organized a Monthly Research Seminar on 30th August 2025 at the Seminar Hall, DGC. The program was conducted under the initiative of the Research & Developmental Cell and was sponsored by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), DGC.

The seminar was chaired by Ms. Selina Walling, Assistant Professor, Department of EVS, DGC. The session began with a welcome address given by the chairperson, followed by the National Anthem.

The paper presentation was delivered by Ms. Taba Yasi, Assistant Professor, Department of Hindi, DGC, and Research Scholar, Nagaland University, on the topic “Adivasi Sahitya: Swaroop Evam Samasyaein” (Adivasi Literature: Nature and Issues). She highlighted the definition, nature, and key issues related to Adivasi literature, emphasizing its importance in the wider field of literary studies.

After the presentation, an interactive session was held wherein some key issues pertaining to study area, sampling and methodological aspects were raised and clarified by the presenter.

The program was attended by 25 teachers and concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Harekrushna Parhi, Associate Professor, Department of Education. After the formal session, refreshments were served to all participants.

The seminar was an enriching academic experience, providing valuable insights into the issues and perspectives of Adivasi literature.
